THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people; standing upon the Constitution as the people; standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guaranto of the rights of citizens; recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war or the states in voluntary action of the Southern States, and Constitutional Conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated; do, with the return of peace, demand,

1. Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution and civil government of the American people.

2. Amnesty for all past political offenses, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens, and the payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable.

3. All money drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, should be honestly applied to such purposes, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and justice, be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

4. Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds, and other public securities.

5. One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

6. Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolishment of the freedmen's bureau, and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and the discontinuance of inquisitorial boards for assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened; the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into National forces in time of peace; a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

7. Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from offices, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to, and the independence of the Executive and Judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

8. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; an assertion of American nationality, which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and vindicate an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights, and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance, and the claims of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crimes committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career, after the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution.

It has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which was raised that noble volunteer army, which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States in time of peace to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury.

It has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty.

It has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press.

It has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret Star Chamber inquisitions, for constitutional tribunals.

It has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from search and seizures.

It has entered the post and telegraph offices, and seized their private papers and letters, without any specification or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law.

It has converted the American capitol into a bastile.

It has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort.

It has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judiciary tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President.

Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of debt created during the war.

Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its president we will meet as a subject and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with this exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and, if sanctioned by the people, will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized, consolidated government in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of equal States.

That we regard the reconstruction acts of Congress, so-called, as usurpations, unconstitutional, revolutionary and void, and that our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory against a common foe, and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed widely among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants at the minimum price as established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed, necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands and not the lands themselves should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress on the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and on behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.

Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the conservative element and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people, and that to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship and hail all such co-operating with us as friends and brothers.

FOR PRESIDENT.

HORATIO SEYMOUR,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

FRANK P. BLAIR,

OF MISSOURI.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

NEW YORK, August 6.—The text of the convention between the United States and Mexico, signed by Seward and Romero, is published, under which a commissioner is appointed to adjust the claims of citizens of the two countries; another convention is published regulating citizenship and emigrants from one to the other country; as is also a consular convention. All were concluded during Romero's recent visit to this country, and bear date of the 14th and 18th of July.

A Venezuela dispatch states that Marshall, the deposed President, is again in arms before Coradenitz, endeavoring to wrest the executive chair from Mononagas, the revolutionary leader.

WASHINGTON, August 6.—Gen. Grant has recommended the remission of the remainder of sentences and release from imprisonment of all prisoners now in confinement under the sentence of military commissions, organized under the reconstruction acts of Congress, in the States where said acts have ceased to be in operation.

Senator Ross, of Kansas, leaves tomorrow for home.

The usual rumors have prevailed today in connection with officers of the internal revenue. One of them, which gains very general credence, was that President Johnson had decided upon accepting the resignation tendered some time ago by Commissioner Rollins without further delay. It is stated, however, in reading circles, that there is every possibility of the whole subject of the Commissionership remaining suspended until the return of the Attorney General.

It is ascertained that the instructions of Reverdy Johnson were not particularly stringent regarding the Alabama claims. He was merely directed to proclaim the same course as his predecessor has pursued on the question, but was more fully instructed regarding the American doctrine of naturalization. It is believed that the President and Secretary Seward authorized him to negotiate a treaty as to the rights of naturalized citizens similar to that lately agreed upon between Prussia and the United States.

CINCINNATI, August 6.—The elevators of Delaware, Potomac, Ezra Porter and Pine Grove were entirely destroyed by fire at the Eureka dry docks, at two o'clock this morning.

ATLANTA, August 6.—A resolution was offered in the House that all persons holding municipal offices in the State by virtue of any military command be removed, and that all offices thus vacated shall be resumed by those removed by military authority, and are required to act in their respective capacities until the time for holding the election arrives.

MONTGOMERY, August 6.—Nothing of interest was done in the House to-day. The Senate, with only one dissenting voice, passed the bill removing all political disabilities. It provides that all disabilities resting on a citizen shall be removed on his filing an application with the Probate Judge. No oath required.

The Senate, by a vote of 13 to 12, (the Lieutenant Governor giving the deciding vote) passed the bill which had previously passed the House, authorizing the Governor to select one newspaper in each Congressional District in which all legal notices of every kind shall be inserted. It is thought the Governor will veto it.

LEAVENWORTH, August 6.—On Tuesday, before Justice Thalen, in the case of the State vs. Gen. Sheridan, Gen. Gibbs, Gen. McKenna, Lieut. Long and Corporal Lee, for assault with sabers, etc., taking postal stamps and envelopes, United States treasury notes and postal currency, to the amount of two thousand dollars, Corporal Lee, who commanded the squad of soldiers who forcibly ejected Postmaster Dunn from the reserve, was adjudged guilty, and fined one dollar and costs. The court then adjourned until this morning, when other defendants proceeded, and the same verdict rendered in all except the case of Gen. Sheridan, who was fined one hundred dollars. The defendants have appealed to the Criminal Court.

BALTIMORE, August 6.—John H. Ligmore, City Commissioner, reports the damages done to streets and bridges by the late flood. To rebuild and repair the bridges and put the streets in proper condition, he estimates that $215,000 will be required.

The Avalanche's Opinion of Us.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

In the leader of the Avalanche on the morning of the 5th, is the following singular and very extraordinary language: "It is a well known fact that all our political movements, from the primary meeting in the smallest precinct to the highest places, are controlled almost entirely by professional politicians, who are too ready to pander to any sectional excitement, however prejudical to the county, so that their own advancement may be secured." Is this true in point of fact? Are the gentlemen of this city, including all classes who are laboring to concentrate public opinion and relieve our necks from the feet of the tyrant, all "professional politicians * * ready to pander to any excitement?" to "secure their own advancement?" Did not the editor of the Avalanche aid in getting up the "primary meeting" that sent delegates to Nashville? And did he not go to Nashville as a delegate? Did he not aid in getting up and attend a "primary meeting" to appoint delegates to Brownsville? And does he not go as a delegate himself? How then does the editor find it consonant with his judgment of the character of his coworkers to associate with them in a common cause if they are such as he describes them? Does he not know that many of them could have had almost any office in the State by a compromise of their integrity and the interests of the country? And yet they have submitted it to the most stringent and humiliating proscription, rather than do so. And this they have done to be at last told by an associate, and coworker that they are all a set of professional politicians, ready to sacrifice the country for office. How far such changes are calculated to promote harmony and good feeling amongst us, I leave the editor of the Avalanche to judge, and I leave an impartial public to judge between us.

There may also be, as the editor of the Avalanche says this morning, "a good deal of fuss and feathers" among the Democrats of this city. But if it be so, I humbly suggest it does not very well become the editor of the Avalanche to say so. The very morning on which the paper containing this ill-timed sneer, at the labor of the Democratic party in the city appeared, a gentleman from the country expressed an opinion to the same effect to me, and in a short conversation I found, as he frankly confessed, that he had got the idea from the Avalanche—and overlooking altogether the benefit to be derived from a bold and outspoken public opinion was insensibly imbibing the opinion from the Avalanche, that it was all sound and fury, signifying nothing. Such obstacles thrown in our way are very unpleasant and under favor. I suggest that gentlemen aiming to lead public opinion should weigh well their words before they speak or print them. C.

Secretary Seward Offered a Naval Station in Asia.

A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from Washington, says: From information I have received today it would appear that the eye of the Sage of Auburn is upon a nice little island, situated exactly where I am not at liberty to state, though I am fully posted as to its geographical position. The object of the new purchase is to secure a naval station somewhere in the East, to be thus in a position to compete with European nations in their commercial relations with that part of the world.

* * * * *

Senor Cesare Moreno, a renowned traveler in the East, who has spent fifteen years among the different peoples and countries of Asia, who speaks their languages, understands their customs, and possesses their confidence to the fullest degree, has come to this country, and in an official communication to the Secretary of State has proffered his valuable services to the United States.

In this communication he claims to have discovered a little island, in February, 1862, inhabited by a tribe of Malays, and never before trodden by the feet of white men. He landed on the island in a little dingey, and took possession of it in his own name; was welcomed by the inhabitants and chosen their chief, under the name of Pootee Than Mustapha, which in the Malay language means, "The White Chief Mustapha." Senor Moreno dwelt with the natives for some time, and promised them to put the island in the possession of the United States, on condition that the latter should protect them from molestation by all other Malay tribes, as well as from European invasion. Moreno now offers to sell this to our Government for $600,000, a very insignificant sum, if the island be what it is pictured—abounding in all the productions familiar to spice islands, and well adapted for an American naval station.—National Intelligencer.

Many of our citizens have visited the Zoological Garden of Mr. Charles E. Becker, on Union avenue, and on and this morning they will be surprised to hear of Mr. Becker's death from a rattlesnake bite. He was occasionally adding new features to his zoological show, and on Sunday last he received a rattlesnake, which was seven years old, and measured five feet in length. It was placed in a wire cage in the garden, where it attracted considerable attention, and Mr. Becker took delight in showing it to his friends.

Yesterday afternoon, about half-past three o'clock, several gentlemen called at his place, and Mr. Becker invited them into the garden to see the reptile. In order to excite the animal to rage, he drew his hand over the wires; but this had not the desired effect. He then pulled out his penknife and endeavored to touch it, and in so doing the snake caught him by the right fore finger, causing three wounds. Mr. Becker at once proceeded across the street to the drug store of Dr. J. C. Everson, whose medical assistance was rendered. The wounds were pressed, and nitric acid applied four times, in order to burn out the poison. The ammonia was also supplied with a quantity of liquor. After this Mr. Becker returned to his home, and calling for his will, which he had executed some time since, made a few additions to it, bade his family, soon and bidding good-bye to his friends, and after expired. Mr. Becker, while in the drug store, told the doctor that he knew he would die, but requested him to do all he could to save his life. Deceased was a hale and hearty man, of about forty years. He was much respected, and had associated around him a host of friends. He leaves a wife and family. The reptile, after inflicting the fatal wounds, was put to death.—Philadelphia Enquirer 31st ult.

BUCKEYE SALVE

—FOR THE—

CURE OF EVERY FORM

—OF—

HEMORRHOIDS OR PILES

WHETHER OF LONG STANDING OR RECENT ORIGIN, internal or external, whether attended with Prolapsus, Hemorrhage or obstruction, and all by

External Application,

No internal adjuvants being required in any case, only to regulate the bowels, if constipated, or in Diarrhea and Dysentery.

The PILES, while astonishingly prevalent in their various forms amongst all classes of both sexes, are, at the same time, the most distressing, frequently dangerous, and hitherto most difficult of cure.

Persons who suffer any length of time with the Piles generally try everything they can learn of purporting to cure the disease, yet realize no permanent advantage therefrom. They have been told professionally, perhaps, there was "no permanent cure for Piles," and consequently have despaired of any future cessation from pain and suffering.

To all such a SPECIFIC is offered for their relief. The

BUCKEYE SALVE

is a strictly scientific combination of well known remedial agents, and the proprietors have no hesitation in saying the BUCKEYE SALVE is the

ONLY INFALLIBLE SPECIFIC

Ever discovered for that disease, and which cures by outward application only, and that in time to come, as in the past, it will stand the test of trial without a failure, to perform all the proprietors claim for it, if the directions are followed to.

A large number of gentlemen throughout the country of high character and influence have voluntarily assented to its efficacy in their own cases, and for the benefit of my friends and the public, which heretofore has been so generously bestowed.

MONEY WANTED.

It is proposed that JOHN F. HARRIS, LAWRENCE JOHNSON, WILLIAM WEBB, ROBERT WARDLOW and MARENGO JOHNSON, "who can do more than a dozen white speakers who talk only to themselves," shall go out among their colored friends and "do more good for the cause than all the newspapers of the city, which are only read by men already true, and who have no votes."

To enable these colored men to do this, it is necessary that each should be supplied with from one hundred to one hundred and fifty or two hundred dollars. Two or three others can be added to the list, whose services would be of equal value. As these persons can not travel at their own expense, about the sum of one thousand dollars is needed, which will, of course, be raised without difficulty.

All Conservative gentlemen who are willing to contribute towards this enterprise, are invited to leave their subscriptions, in money, at the APPEAL or AVALANCHE office, or with some officer of the Central or Colored Democratic Clubs. They will thus prove their faith by their works.

A BAS LES ARISTOCRATS!

The considerations which will determine South Carolinians to bid adieu to the halls of their ancestors, are very much like those which induce the cause of emigration everywhere, from the descent of the Goths upon Rome down to the latest importation of emigrants from Holland, or from the stampedes of wild buffaloes to the flight of waterfowl. When the South Carolinian aristocrats can get better picking and more lordly indolence elsewhere than in South Carolina, they will go. Not before. But if anybody is to be colonized, by all means let it be the class which Wade Hampton represents. South Carolina could do without her gentlemen as well as Ireland without her established church, or France or Italy without their Bourbons.—N. Y. Tribune.

Horace Greeley is a pinchbeck Marat, imbued with a feeble hatred of those Southern gentlemen whom every man of Northern birth that has lived among them loves and admires. He would like to see them all beheaded, but he faints at the sight of blood. Like Jack Cade, he has a deadly hate of gentlemen. "South Carolina could do without her gentlemen!" So could England and Ireland, in Greeley's estimation.

There is a little, mean, petty spite and malignity in the paragraph we have quoted, characteristic of the Tribune, which can utter more despicable sentiments than any journal in America. There never was a time, and there never will be, when the South could do without its gentlemen. It did not do without them in the Revolution, when Pinckney and Marion and Sumpter and Hayne made the name of South Carolina illustrious; and the Greeleys were—the Lord knows where. It did not do without them in the war of 1812, or in the war with Mexico. It did not do without them in the late civil war, when Lee and Johnston and Beauregard led its armies on a hundred victorious fields. "Do without its gentlemen!" Thank God, there is a perennial spring of noble loyalty in the bosom of every people, that makes the men of toil love and admire and be proud of the gentlemen of their land. Could France have done without her gentlemen through all her great struggle with England? Would Ireland like to have the names of her gentlemen blotted from her roll of heroes? Were not Hampden and Sydney and Holt and Somers, English gentlemen? Were Wellington and Crawford and the Napiers any other than English gentlemen? What were Clay and Calhoun and Webster, and Worth, and Lincoln who fell at Buena Vista? It is not birth that makes the gentleman; but nevertheless Greeley and Fred. Douglass are neither Bayards nor DuGueslins; and to be of an illustrious stock adds lustre to a noble character.

Congress is doing now without Southern gentlemen; and it does not find the experiment to be a success. Those who now pretend to represent the South there compare with those who from the genial regions of the South once honored the halls or Congress with their presence, as the Satyrs with Hyperion.

The article of the Tribune, upon which we are commenting, expresses in a sentence the animus and intention of the Radical party. In the Northern States intellect and decency are everywhere giving place to mediocrity and baseness. In Massachusetts, Sumner the Octoroon, and Wilson (alias Coolbroth) the Gipsey, replace Webster and Choate. From New York, Roscoe Conkling sits where Silas Wright once sat in all the glory of his splendid intellect. From Pennsylvania comes paltry Simon Cameron, buying a seat in the Senate with money. From Ohio, blasphemous Ben. Wade succeeds Ewing and Corwin. Everywhere the process of deterioration goes on. In the House, it is worse still. Strabismus Butler, the squint of whose soul is worse than the squint of his eyes, replaces Winthrop, the accomplished gentleman: Logan, Boutwell, Bingham, Covode,—these succeed to the gentlemen that once represented their States; and Stevens limps after the Binneys and Sergeants of Pennsylvania.

These men, the scabs and cankers of the commonwealth, have a natural hatred of every Southern gentleman; and their purpose is, and all the time has been, to ruin and to crush every decent gentleman, of every trade, profession and calling, in the Southern States. Judging others by themselves, and themselves inconceivably base, they seem to have thought that this would be grateful to the mass of the Southern people, whom they attempted to bribe with immunity and enfranchisement and political equality with the negro, to become apostates and renegades, and abandon their chosen leaders to their fate.

They have not understood the people of the South. The men of the South know how their leaders led them in the field and shared with them the hardships of the camp; and that the gentlemen of the South, as well as those of names unknown before, proved themselves as worthy of their race, as the old Frank and Norman nobles were. They do not want to see the old names die out. It is a stupid mistake to imagine that the gentlemen of the South have become odious, or the old names of little value, to the people of the South. On the contrary, they are prouder of them than ever. They have reason to be so.

Night Dispatches.

NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, August 6.—John Burnside, a negro indicted for larceny, was to-day placed on trial in the Criminal Court, Hon. John Hugh Smith presiding, and at his request a negro jury was empanneled, the first jury of the kind in the State. The trial attracted much attention.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, August 6.—Dispatches from various parts of Spain represent the whole country in a state of despotet, and the utmost efforts of the Government are required to prevent outbreaks.

Queen Victoria arrived at the Tuilleries to-day, and will leave to-night for Switzerland.

MADRID, August 6.—Spain has declined to assume the Protectorate of St. Domingo.

ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, August 6.—In the Senate to-day a bill was presented providing for the Legislature to cast the electoral vote of the State, which was met with such opposition that it was postponed until to-morrow.

The Speaker caused to be read a number of letters from the Kuklux Klan and a lively discussion ensued.

In the House the Senate bill removing all political disabilities from the citizens, was called up and postponed until to-morrow.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, August 6.—Two more Democratic members of the House have been unseated and their Radical opponents permitted to take their seats. The seats of those ousted were originally contested on the ground of ineligibility, but that ground was abandoned and fraud substituted. Among the published evidence in the case are two affidavits proving that the Radical contestants committed more fraud than was charged against the Democrats, but the Radicals were allowed to take the seats by a vote of 43 to 25.

The presiding officers of the Democratic clubs denounce the statement that their organizations professing to be political, are really military, as an unmitigated falsehood.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, August 6.—Attorney-General Evarts returned this morning from a visit to New York and had an interview with the President and Secretary McCullough this afternoon.

Gen. Canby is expected to arrive here about the last of this week or the first of the next, and enter immediately upon the discharge of his duties as commander of this department. Gen. Emory, the present commander, will remain in this city, he being a member of the board to regulate the cavalry tactics, now in session here.

Gen. Kilpatrick will return from his mission to Chili during the present month for the purpose of attending to his private affairs. It is also reported that he will enter the political canvass for Grant.

The official interview between President Johnson and Col. Deane, of Louisiana, a member of Gov. Warmoth's staff, was pleasant and conciliatory, the President, during the interview, showing no disposition to question the legitimacy of the Government of Louisiana, which furnished credentials to Col. Deane; and without giving Gov. Warmoth's messenger any official assurances, the President expressed the opinion that the course he had pursued in regard to Tennessee, would be adopted in Louisiana and other Southern States, viz: that upon proper application, the Federal troops, of which there are a sufficient number in the South, would be used under Federal orders for the suppression of disorders.

The documents presented by Col. Deane were referred to the War Department, and the matter remains in abeyance until Gen. Schofield returns on Saturday.

SARATOGA.

SARATOGA, August 6.—The attendance at the races to-day was large and fashionable and the racing highly exciting. The three favorites were beaten and immense sums of money lost.

The hurdle, for all ages, over eight hurdles three and a half feet high, was won by Harry Booth. Starlight and Eagle came in close as second and third, Lobelia fourth and Strong and Tycoon (the favorite) last. Time, 4:14¼.

The second race, for the Saratoga cup of $1000 added to a sweepstake of $5000 each, 2¼ miles, for all ages, was won by U. H. Sanford's Lancaster by ¼ of a head, beating James A. Connally, Fanny Cheatham and Morrissey. Training time, 4¼, in the order named. The following was the pool betting: Fanny Cheatham, $22; Connally, $12 50; Lancaster, $7 70, and Morrissey, $1. Lancaster was third at the last quarter and won by splendid riding, amid the wildest excitement.

The third race, a dash of three-quarter miles, for all ages, for a purse of $300, was won by D. McDaniels' filly, Lizzie Rogers, by a length, beating Gilroy, Sleeter, Raquette (Dickerson's colt), and Jubal, in the order named. Time, 1:20.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, August 6.—Ex-Admiral Franklin Buchanan, C. S. N., has been elected President of the Maryland Agricultural College.

The Ocean Queen, from Aspinwall, brings $86 000 in treasure.

Panama advices to the 28th ult. state that no collision between the Government troops and the Revolutionists had yet taken place. The preparations on both sides were active, though there was a prospect of amicable arrangements.

At an adjourned meeting of the tobacco dealers and the manufacturers to-day, resolutions were adopted that all tobacco and snuffs should at once be packed, in conformity with the new law, and requesting the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to enforce the fines and penalties after the 9th of August.

The resignation of Commissioner Rollins was accepted to-day.

A Nice old Judge.

Under this heading the Mobile Register of the 4th inst. has the following highly illustrative of the blessed fruits of nigger reconstruction. This "nice old Judge" is a representative man, a type of the class of scoundrels and dogs, the scum of creation, that are lording it over us:

John Elliott, who pretends to have been elected to the office of Circuit Judge, and who, by virtue of such pretense, presides over that Court, went on a high old tear yesterday with a colored friend. This pair of worthies, in their wild search for whisky, went into the saloon of Mr. W. O'Connell, but "Bill" isn't one of their kind, and, without any superfluous talk on the subject, kicked the Honorable (?) gentleman and his friend into the street. It appears, however, that the "Judge" met with more success in some other quarter, for about 4 o'clock yesterday evening he was taken to the guardhouse on a charge of being "drunk and disorderly in the streets." The case was called this morning in the Municipal Court, but continued until to-morrow to allow the Judge time to get sober enough to attend the trial.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

WESCHE.—The friends and acquaintances of F. WESCHE are respectfully invited to attend his funeral, from his late residence on Jackson street, Fort Pickering, this Friday evening, at 3½ o'clock.

By order of Executive Committee.

E. L. GOLDBAUM, Secretary.

NOTICE TO DELEGATES.—Delegates to the District Convention to be held at Brownsville on the 10th inst, will be furnished with their credentials by calling at the office of P. T. Scruggs this (Friday) morning at 9 o'clock.

By order of
P. T. SCRUGGS,
Presd't. County Convention.
R. A. THOMPSON, Secretary.

CENTRAL AVENUE AND BUNTYN STATION CLUBS.—The above clubs were addressed on Park avenue by Col. Thos. Avery in an eloquent and able manner, a large number of ladies being present. It was resolved that the two clubs should unite, and a meeting for this purpose will be held on Friday evening, 7th inst., at Park avenue school house. New officers will be elected, and the attendance of every member is requested.

We learned by a dispatch received in this city yesterday evening, that Thos. B. Page, brother of J. C. Page, of Page & Co., died at his residence in Covington, Ky., yesterday morning. He was for many years Cashier of the Bank of Kentucky at Covington, and for the past three years President of the Third National Bank at Cincinnati. Many of our business men knew him well. His death will leave a void in the business world not easily filled.

DEPARTED—D. P. Hadden, Esq., not "to that bourne from whence no traveler returns," but to spend the summer in the cities of the East. We understand our esteemed friend stopped a day or so at Clarksville, Tenn., where he was united to the love of his early days. We wish his bride and himself all possible happiness, a pleasant tour and a safe return to their many true and affectionate friends.

"How blest the sacred ties that binds
In union sweet, accordant minds!
How swift the heavenly course they run,
Whose hearts, whose faith, whose hopes are one."
N. Y.

PERSONAL.

—We were pleased to meet Dr. Fenner to-day, who has just returned from a trip North, looking well, and in good health.

—Mr. L. C. Cumming left to-day for the Eastern cities. We wish him a pleasant trip, and all the success in his business arrangements to which his well known capacity entitles him.

—J. D. Allen, Esq., the proprietor and manager of that excellent hotel, the Commercial, has found himself compelled by failing health to take a holiday. He has gone to Iuka Springs, and will put himself under the regime of Messrs. Steffey & Barchus, who, we have no doubt, will bring him out all right. Meanwhile the Commercial, under the management of the younger brothers of the Allen family, will "hold its own against all comers." We hope to see him soon return, in good health and spirits.

FOR TEN DAYS ONLY.—W. Y. Cirode assignee of P. I. Huette & Co., bankrupts, will sell the balance of the stock at No. 195 Main street, at twenty per cent. below New York and manufacturers' cost, in lots to suit purchasers. Fancy goods, drugs, paints, oils, perfumery, etc. jy23 eod 10t

FIGHTING MEN OF THE C.S.A.

The Meeting Saturday Night.

The following from one of our most particular friends, and one who well merits the name of "fighting man," explains itself. The meeting is called for the sole purpose of showing the world that they who were first and last to bear the brunt of battle, and who stood to their colors, true and tried, until the battle's roar was heard no more and war's storm had ceased to blow—that they are now for peace. All ex Confederate soldiers who did their duty are requested to be present:

MEMPHIS, August 6, 1868.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

I see by this evening's Ledger that W. B. Greenlaw, Esq., has kindly tendered the use of his Opera House for the meeting called for in my card in the Ledger of Wednesday, and in behalf of the gentlemen, at whose request the card was written, I accept his offer, and again urge every Confederate soldier, no matter in what capacity he served, so that he did his duty, to meet at the Opera House, on Saturday evening next, for the purpose of considering the action of our Generals at Nashville, in their interview with the Legislative Committee, and for a full and perfect interchange of opinions. EX-REB.

Editor Memphis Appeal:

The Democratic Convention of this Congressional District to nominate a candidate to represent us in the Forty-first Congress of the United States, is to assemble at Brownsville on Monday next. The names of several gentlemen, all of whom are good and true men, have been suggested for the consideration of said Convention. There is amongst us, Mr. Editor, a man whose name has not thus far been mentioned, in whom I believe the members of the Convention will find an an individual who is every way worthy of the position, and around whom I believe the Democracy of the district will rally with unusual unanimity and enthusiasm. The name of that man is Col. Marland L. Perkins, a gentleman who served with distinction in the Federal army during the late war, and who, during that war and since its conclusion, has endeared himself to us all by his bold, generous and magnanimous conduct toward the people of this portion of the United States.

Col. Perkins possesses all the necessary qualifications for the position of a member of Congress. He is intelligent, manly and brave, and would be compelled from his antecedents to command the unanimous vote of the party here, and the respect of his compeers at Washington. I have written this, Mr. Editor, not for the purpose of urging his claims, but simply to suggest his name to the Convention. Certain I am that whoever may receive the nomination, will have no warmer supporter than the gentleman in whose favor I write.

DEMOCRAT.

THE KINNA HOMICIDE.

Conklin, Hooth and Sherman, charged with being accessory to the fatal shooting of Tom Kinna, on Adams street, Tuesday morning, were carried before 'Squire Hall yesterday, and after a hearing, were discharged. As soon as this was done they were rearrested and taken before 'Squire Griffith, who, after a patient hearing of the case, also discharged the prisoners. Fitzgerald is still in jail, but will have a hearing to-day before 'Squire Foley.

THE RAILROAD CONVENTION.—The importance attached to the Railroad Convention which met in our city, is proved by the admittance of the representatives of popular roads, such as the Illinois Central, the New Orleans and Great Northern and the Mississippi Central Railroads, in addition to those representing roads terminating in Memphis. Major B. F. Longley, so well and favorably known to our citizens as the General Southern Passenger Agent of the Illinois Central and Michigan Central Railroads, who is almost a convention in himself, so far as his influence is concerned, was on hand, and, we think, had his hands full, as well as his glass, in introducing his many friends to the popular representative of one of his roads, W. P. Johnson, General Ticket and Passenger Agent of the Illinois Central Railroad. We have a most pleasant recollection of the Illinois Central, as for years it was the only road which formed a railroad connection with the East, and then established a reputation for reliability, as to time and certainty of connection, which leaves it, even to this day, without a successful competitor. Col. J. S. Winfield, the General Agent of the New Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern and the Mississippi Central Railroads, is a gentleman well-known throughout the length and breadth of the whole country, as an accomplished gentleman and a No. 1 railroad man—as is, also, T. S. Williams, Esq., the Superintendent of the New Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern Road. All left for their respective homes last evening. We wish that they may again visit us, when their time will not be so much occupied with business.

The Coroner yesterday held an inquest on the body of Edith Springstein, alias Lamareaux, found dead in her room, at the corner of Gravier and Basin streets. The deceased was nineteen years old, born in New York; her father was a German, her mother a Spaniard. Last year she was one of the favorite danseuses at the Olympic Theater, and has since then appeared on the stage in several Northern and Eastern cities. A short time since she arrived in New Orleans from Mobile, and took lodgings where she expired. Her professional career as a danseuse was not very profitable, and she was at times gloomy and despondent, and frequently took opium. Wednesday evening she went with a female friend to a restaurant opposite, and took one or two drinks. A young man who seemed to be on intimate terms with her, came over and ordered her, or asked her, to go back home. She told him she would, but wanted to take another drink. This he refused to let her have, and struck her with the back of the hand under the eye. After some words he agreed to leave her and never come back unless she sent for him. She then went to her room, took a dose of opium, and died yesterday morning from the effects. The jury of inquest found a verdict accordingly.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

THIRD DAY.

The Board met pursuant to adjournment, at 4 p.m.

Present, Aldermen Glancy, Johnson, Joyce, Black, Magevney, Cartwright, O'Donnell, Cicalla, Ruffin, Moffet, Renner, Passmore, McDavitt, Ellis, Brown, and Goodlett.

Alderman Ruffin was called to the Chair, and called the Board to order.

The unfinished business of the preceding day was taken up, and Alderman Renner offered the following preamble and resolution:

WHEREAS, The taxes accruing in the city from mercantile and other licenses and privileges, are now collected entirely for the use of the Police, without, so far, in any way having been accounted for to the Board of Mayor and Aldermen; and

Whereas, Now the commercial interests of our community bears the burthen of the Police alone; and

Whereas, This interest needs at present all the alleviation and encouragement that can possibly be extended to it; and

Whereas, It is of the utmost importance that the Board should have the sole and individual control of the city tax; and

Whereas, There is great prospect that, by proper management, the expenses for police purposes could be lessened and the force made more efficient,

Resolved, That the Finance Committee be instructed to take without delay steps necessary to bring the office of Privilege Tax Collector again under the control of this Board and report at an early Executive meeting.

Alderman McDavitt said that he as Chairman of the Finance Committee would beg that action should be delayed. He would be compelled to leave the city soon on account of his health, and therefore could not attend to it properly. He thought that next fall would be a better time to take this matter under consideration, as there would then be a surplus of money, and the city could go ahead and move in matters that she now could not.

At the request of Alderman Glancy, the Secretary read the resolution a second time.

Alderman Renner said that he would wish to be understood as giving the chairman of the Finance Committee all the time he required. He did not know he intended leaving the city. In a few forcible remarks he supported his resolutions, and said by adopting them, and an early and earnest movement, thousands of dollars could be saved the city, and still have the heavy burthens on the merchants removed. As the thing was now managed, the privilege tax was a burthen on the merchants and citizens, and accrued to the benefit of no one except the police. We need a workhouse and must have it, and could soon build one with these privilege taxes that were being spent, no one knows how. Between five and six thousand dollars were expended by Col. Beaumont during the past year in lawyers' fees alone, defending himself against charges brought against him. The City Attorney could have done this work for him as easy as not. The Board paid between $12,000 and $14,000 for legal advice last year. This money that is collected by Beaumont is used for purposes that have no connection with our city—pursuing criminals at a distance. The county, too, gets a great share of the advantages, and he thought that there should be some understanding, and harmony between all parties.

The resolution was seconded, put to vote, and passed unanimously.

Alderman Cicalla offered several resolutions and petitions looking to the improvement of his (Sixth) ward, and the repairing of the streets in the same—all of which were adopted, or referred to the proper committee.

Alderman Ruffin called Alderman Passmore to the chair, and taking his place, asked to be allowed to reconsider his vote on the ordinance passed Monday evening, not allowing cotton to remain forty-eight hours on the bluffs.

He was informed that he could only do so by offering an ordinance repealing the ordinance.

While he was preparing the requisite document, the chair passed to the Sixth ward, and Alderman O'Donnell presented several petitions and resolutions, all of which were passed or referred to the proper committees; among them was an ordinance for the widening of Main street, between Butler and South streets. The street is now sixty feet wide, and it is proposed to make it eighty feet by taking twenty feet from the Butler block, 586 feet front.

The ordinance passed on the first reading, and, the rules having been suspended, passed on the second reading.

Alderman Holst offered several resolutions, which were referred to proper committees or adopted, one of which authorized the Fire Committee to sell a horse belonging to them, and an old bell, and to buy a horse for the use of steam fire engine No. 4.

Alderman Cartwright presented a petition from John B. Johnson, requesting that the City Engineer investigate certain grievances which he has sustained at the hands of the city, in changing grades, etc. Referred to Paving Committee and City Engineer.

Alderman Ruffin then got the floor and offered the following, which was passed at the first reading and referred:

Be it ordained, etc., That Section 9 of an ordinance passed on the evening of the 4th of August, relating to the use of public grounds or promenades, be amended by having the words "exceeding forty-eight hours" stricken out, and in every other section where such words occur.

Alderman Johnson moved that the vote adopting the ordinance preventing the storage of cotton, etc., in business houses, be reconsidered, and his motion was lost by the following vote:

Ayes—Glancy, Joyce, Cartwright, Ruffin, Renner and Ellis.

Alderman Ruffin offered a petition from William Yanaky, asking permission to occupy his stall in common with others. Referred to City Attorney, with power to act.

By the same:

A petition from L. A. Dixon, asking an abatement of an order to change a street grade. Referred to City Engineer and Paving Committee, with power to act.

By Alderman Black:

Resolved, etc, That the property owners on the east and west side of Fourth street, from Court street to Adams street, be notified to lay down brick sidewalks in the next thirty days.

Adopted.

By Alderman Magevney:

Resolved, etc., That the Mayor and all other city officials having their horses boarded at the expense of the city of Memphis, are hereby notified that no horse or mule shall be thus kept, except those belonging to the city and used for city purposes, and not for city officers.

A motion to lay the foregoing on the table was lost by the following vote: Ayes—Goodlett, Glancy, Cartwright and Passmore. Nays—Johnson, Joyce, Magevney, Black, Holst, O'Donnell, Cicalla, Renner, Lemon, Moffet, McDavitt and Ellis.

The resolution was, upon motion, referred to the Improvement Committee.

By Alderman Magevney:

Resolved, etc., That owners of property on Adams street, between Main street and the bayou, are ordered to repair their sidewalks within the next twenty days.

Adopted.

By Alderman Johnson:

Be it ordained, etc., That the owner or agent of buildings within the fire limits of the city of Memphis may have the privilege of repairing the same; provided only such material is used as is necessary to make said repairs. All ordinances conflicting with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Passed first reading.

A motion to lay the foregoing on the table was carried by the following vote: Ayes—Aldermen Goodlett, Glancy, Magevney, Black, Cartwright, Holst, Renner, Lemon, Moffet, McDavitt and Ellis. Nays—Johnson, Joyce, O'Donnell and Cicalla.

By Alderman Glancy:

Resolved, That the Sergeant of the Metropolitan Police be and is hereby authorized by this Board to notify the property owners on Front street to repair and lay down a brick sidewalk, in the next thirty days, on their respective properties, from Market street to the gas works.

Adopted.

By Alderman Lemon:

Resolved, That the Street Commissioners be instructed to lay down a crossing at the intersection of Hernando and Elliot streets and Allen's avenue.

Adopted.

Bids for furnishing the city with coal were read and referred to a special committee composed of Aldermen O'Donnell, Cartwright, Magevney, Moffet and Lemon.

Thereupon the Board adjourned.

DR. NORRIS' OPERATION.—Not being well versed in medical technicalities, we made, yesterday, sad havoc with some of the medical terms. It was intended by us to say that Dr. Norris removed by an operation, the lens of the eye, with a hydatid, or animalcula, more than an inch long, which was in the aqueous humor, the front chamber of the eye. By its movement the patient suffered the most violent pain, but since its extraction he has been perfectly easy, and will soon be well.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
MEMPHIS, August 6, 1868.

The weather has changed within the last day or two, and we are now, we trust, entering into another dry spell, which will mature the crops and check the tendency to create worms. The latter are spreading havoc throughout the fields of South Alabama, Mississippi, and portions of Arkansas, and there is no hope for any relief from them until clear hot weather again resumes its sway. General business is, under the circumstances, very fair, but we regret to learn that many of our merchants have thought it best to countermand orders for goods in view of the calling out of the militia by the Governor, which is now considered by many as a foregone conclusion. The feeling of depression was very general to-day, and presented quite a contrast from that which existed only the day before, when it was firmly believed that such a measure would not be entertained by the Legislature after the conferences held in Nashville a few days ago. A Representative of this county, named T. A. Hamilton, asked what assurances could be given that these troops would not be needed. It is suggested that sugar to any amount can be forwarded to Nashville as pledges by the merchants of this city, though his immunity from prosecution by our citizens for the theft of that article should be a sufficient guarantee to satisfy the gentleman.

Gold has reached 150, and the large means in the hands of those who are committed to the "bull" interest may run it up still further, but we are inclined to think it has about arrived at the point where it will stop, and those who have been large buyers must stand from under. This excitement is purely of a fictitious character. The New York market to-day opened at 149¾c, went up to 150c, declined to 148¾c, and again went up to 149½c, at which it closed. We quote a few light sales at 146@147c. Selling at 148@149c.

The New York stock exchange quotations at noon to-day were as follows: Coupons of '81, 16¼; do '62, 14½; do '64, 11; do '65, 12½; new issue, 8½; do '67, 8½; 10-40s, 9½; 7-30s, both series, none; Government bonds, —; old Tennessees, none; new, 65½; sterling, steady; gold loans, 4 per cent.

Stocks and bonds are dull and nominal. Even the inquiry for city has died away, and in a day or two we may look for the same parties who were so badly scared recently, to appear upon our streets, with hair on end, offering to sell at 50c.

County warrants are not in demand; 50c was the buying rate to-day. Selling at 75c.

Police warrants sold at 70c to brokers, who ask in a small way 75c.

In the Liverpool market at the opening to-day cotton was irregular, though quotations were unchanged. This was the only dispatch received.

The New York market opened dull and heavy at the closing quotations of last evening. At noon it was dull with prices unsettled. At 3 p.m. was dull and nominal with low grades drooping, and at the close sales were small and prices still declining; Low Middlings, 29½c; Middlings, 29½c; Orleans, 29½c; Good Middling, 32½c.

POPULAR WORKS ON FREEMASONRY

PUBLISHED BY THE

—AND—

MANUFACTURING COMPANY

432 Broome Street, New York.

LITURGY OF THE ANCIENT AND ACcepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States. By Albert Pike, 33d, Sov'g Grand Commander. 8vo. Splendidly illustrated with Chromo-lithographic plates and numerous wood engravings, Part II, 4th to 14th degree, $5 00.

☞ It would perhaps seem unnecessary after giving the above title-page to say anything further in the way of recommendation. The name of the author should of itself be a sufficient guarantee of its worth. Ill. Bro. Pike, by his learning and contributions has done as much to elevate the standard of Masonic literature and extend a knowledge of its symbolism, ethics and history as any other living man. This book, in its particular department, may justly be considered a master-piece, embracing matter not only useful to the Masonic student of every grade, but to men of science in the highest literary field of the present age. Notwithstanding this book has been preceded by several of a similar character, yet to Bro Pike alone is due the honor of first exploring this branch of Masonic literature and of opening to the admiration of the Craft its vast storehouse of knowledge and beauty. The matter contains the degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Rite from the fourth to the fourteenth inclusive, is elegantly illustrated with chromo-lithographs engravings, showing all the jewels, costume, furniture, etc., belonging to each degree. No expense has been spared in getting it up, and it is without doubt the most elegant, as well as one of the most useful books, ever offered to the Fraternity.

Published and for sale by the Masonic Publishing and Manufacturing Company, 432 Broome street, New York, and Booksellers generally in the United States.

Pratt's Southern Made Cotton Gin

THIS GIN is regarded by planters who have used it, as the best for sample, picking the seed clean and light draught. Planters cultivating bottom lands are requested to examine the Eureka Gin at Farrington & Howell's, 268 Front street. It will pay for itself in ginning fifty bales. A. N. Gunnison, manufacturer of the Steel Comb Gin before the war but now a planter, gives the following certificate:

MEMPHIS, TENN., January 31, 1868.

"I take pleasure in recommending to planters cultivating Cotton on bottom lands of the Mississippi, Arkansas, White and St. Francis rivers, the Eureka Gin, made by Daniel Pratt, of Alabama. This Gin separates the hulls, bolls, etc., from the seed Cotton, makes a good sample, and is superior to any other Gin for bottom lands. I have used one myself on a Delta Plantation in Washington county, and it operates well and gives entire satisfaction in every respect. A. N. GUNNISON."

Orders for Gins, from 40 to 80 Saw and Gum Belting, at Factory Prices, addressed to the care of FARRINGTON & HOWELL, 268 Front street, Memphis, promptly filled. Repairing and Gearing put up, and Gins repaired by a skillful Gin wright. G. W. TRUEHEART,

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE Instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-two years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the least price. Our unequalled facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these Instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The manner regulated retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most perfect manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each Instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep6 dawly

Hopkins did pay the sum of $500 00.

And whereas, in order to secure and save harmless the said John Overton, Thomas Bibb, R. C. Brinkley and A. F. Hopkins, the drawers respectively of the aforesaid accommodation bills, and to secure also the said A. and J. Denniston & Co. on the note aforesaid, the said Arthur M. Hopkins did execute an indenture of Trust, dated the 8th day of February, 1861, by and in which he conveyed to Charles Kortrecht the premises situate in the county of Cook and State of Illinois, known and described as follows: "A certain piece or parcel of land lying and being near the city of Chicago, in the State of Illinois, and consisting of forty acres, which was conveyed in fee simple by James W. Pryor, of the city of New York, to the said Arthur M. Hopkins said conveyance being by deed now on record in Cook county, Illinois," which said land is more fully described as blocks three (3) and four (4) of James W. Pryor's subdivision of part of the northeast quarter of section thirty, town 39 thirty-eight (38) north, range fourteen (14) east of the third principal meridian, according to survey and map of the same, said to be deposited for record in the proper office for the recording of surveys and maps in Cook county, Illinois, said subdivision being immediately south of Egan avenue and west of the Chicago and Rock Island Railroad, and said block three (3) and four (4) contain, with the streets bounding on them, ten acres or thereabouts, being the land conveyed to said Arthur M. Hopkins by said James W. Pryor and Katherine M. Pryor, his wife, by their deed dated July 3, 1856, upon Trust; that in case a majority of the beneficiaries in said indenture of Trust mentioned should direct a sale of said premises, then the said Charles Kortrecht was thereby authorized and instructed to sell said premises, at public auction, in the city of Memphis, State of Tennessee, after giving sixty days notice in one or more of the newspapers published in said city of Memphis, of the time and place of said sale, said sale to be made for cash or credit, as a majority of the beneficiaries in said indenture of Trust named might direct, and out of the proceeds of said sale to pay said accommodation bills and the note aforesaid, and to pay the remainder, if any, over to said Arthur M. Hopkins, as will appear by reference to said Trust Deed, recorded in the Recorder's office of Cook county, Illinois in Book 216 of Deeds page 22.

And whereas, default has been made in the payment of said accommodation bills and note, and application has been made and a sale of said premises, for cash, has been directed by a majority of said beneficiaries in said Indenture of Trust named, for the purpose of carrying out said Trust; now, therefore, public notice is hereby given, that I will, on
